

Say not, "Why were the former days better than these?" For it is not from wisdom that you ask this. - Ecclesiastes 7:10

Forget what lies behind and strain forward to what lies ahead. Press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. - From Philippians 3:13,14

Don't long to go back to the way it used to be, especially in your relationship with God.

You must move forward into newness of life and better days.

The best is yet to come!
