

In the 1970s President Richard Nixon caused the unilateral cancellation of the direct international convertibility of the United States dollar to gold.

This now meant that there is nothing backing the value of the US Dollar except the "full faith and credit" of the US Government.

Now printed on paper or stored in a computer's memory, money is intrinsically worthless.

Article 1, Section 10 of the US Constitution reads, "No state shall... coin money, emit bills of credit, make any thing but gold and silver a tender in payment of debts..." This means that the only Constitutionally valid forms of money are gold or silver coin.

Protect yourself from Richard Nixon's policy while you still can!

Buy GOLD and SILVER!

Money talks. But only silver and gold tell the truth!

brikorn.com

In the 1970s President Richard Nixon caused the unilateral cancellation of the direct international convertibility of the United States dollar to gold.

This now meant that there is nothing backing the value of the US Dollar except the "full faith and credit" of the US Government.

Now printed on paper or stored in a computer's memory, money is intrinsically worthless.

Article 1, Section 10 of the US Constitution reads, "No state shall... coin money, emit bills of credit, make any thing but gold and silver a tender in payment of debts..." This means that the only Constitutionally valid forms of money are gold or silver coin.

Protect yourself from Richard Nixon's policy while you still can!

Buy GOLD and SILVER!

Money talks. But only silver and gold tell the truth!

brikorn.com

In the 1970s President Richard Nixon caused the unilateral cancellation of the direct international convertibility of the United States dollar to gold.

This now meant that there is nothing backing the value of the US Dollar except the "full faith and credit" of the US Government.

Now printed on paper or stored in a computer's memory, money is intrinsically worthless.

Article 1, Section 10 of the US Constitution reads, "No state shall... coin money, emit bills of credit, make any thing but gold and silver a tender in payment of debts..." This means that the only Constitutionally valid forms of money are gold or silver coin.

Protect yourself from Richard Nixon's policy while you still can!

Buy GOLD and SILVER!

Money talks. But only silver and gold tell the truth!

brikorn.com

In the 1970s President Richard Nixon caused the unilateral cancellation of the direct international convertibility of the United States dollar to gold.

This now meant that there is nothing backing the value of the US Dollar except the "full faith and credit" of the US Government.

Now printed on paper or stored in a computer's memory, money is intrinsically worthless.

Article 1, Section 10 of the US Constitution reads, "No state shall... coin money, emit bills of credit, make any thing but gold and silver a tender in payment of debts..." This means that the only Constitutionally valid forms of money are gold or silver coin.

Protect yourself from Richard Nixon's policy while you still can!

Buy GOLD and SILVER!

Money talks. But only silver and gold tell the truth!

brikorn.com

Protect Yourself

From Richard Nixon!

Protect Yourself

From Richard Nixon!

Protect Yourself

From Richard Nixon!

Protect Yourself

From Richard Nixon!

