

One day in the near future...

Breaking News: North Korea Becomes a Free Christian State!

Kim Jong-un, the totalitarian dictator of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea has just announced he has become Born-again Christian.

Kim Jong-un announced yesterday at a North Korean press conference that Jesus Christ was to be the new King of North Korea and food will be distributed by the North Korean government to all citizens, starting today.

Kim Jong-un has promised to allow Christian missionaries from all over the world to come into his country and help heal and feed the people. Senior officials have applauded the change in the North Korean Dictator.

President Joe Biden has praised the Lord publicly for Kim Jong-un's change of heart and promised the United States would send at least 1000 Christian missionaries to North Korea over the next few months.